

I am strongly opposed to any liberalization of the present "no call" law as presently in force in Indiana. If I have a persent relationship with a business, they may feel free to call me. If I or they, have terminated our relationship, I do not want them calling me. I get enough nuisance calls from exempt charities as it is. My time is mine---I do not want anyone else having claim to it without my approval.